What happens after you have submitted your application?

VERIFYING YOUR APPLICATION:

Applications will be acknowledged within approximately 3 working days of the advertised closing date.

SELECTION PROCESS:

All applications received by the nominated closing date and time will be rigorously assessed. Consideration for an interview is based upon assessment of your knowledge, experience and employment history compared with the position requirements and your suitability for the position is compared against the suitability of other applicants.

If your application is shortlisted, you will be contacted by telephone to make arrangements for an interview, shortly after the closing date.

INTERVIEW: The interview panel usually consists of two to Shire officers relevant to the position.

All interview questions will be job related, to the knowledge, skills, experience, qualifications and team dynamics that may be required for the position. The same questions will be asked of each candidate interviewed.

To prepare yourself for the interview you should:

- Re-read your application and the Position Description.
- Focus on the Position Description and think of examples of work situations where you applied the relevant skills and abilities, how you assessed the situation/s, what actions you took, what outcomes you achieved and how you may do it differently if faced with the same scenario.
- Think about the duties of the position and how you would perform them. Consider any problems you may encounter and how you would resolve those problems.
- If you have relevant pieces of work that display your skills and abilities, bring them along for presentation at the interview.
- Prepare any questions that you may have about the position or the organisation.
- Decide on a commencement date to provide the interview panel.

AFTER THE INTERVIEW: Following reference checks on the preferred applicant selected from the interviews the preferred applicant will be phoned and asked to provide further pre-employment documents such as: a Shire Medical evaluation, to determine suitability to carry out the requirements of the position; and a National Police Clearance. Formal offer of employment will be made in writing based on the adequacy of these documents.

All unsuccessful applicants will be notified in writing when an offer is accepted by a preferred applicant. This may take up to 3 weeks, depending on the circumstances.

WITHDRAWING YOUR APPLICATION:

Should you for any reason you want to withdraw your application from the process simply send advice to the Shire in writing, stating your name and the vacancy number.
