- First time one year registrations received on or after 1 June each year are subject to a 50% concession on the registration fees.

Dangerous Dogs

The Dog Act 1976 provides for three categories of dangerous dogs: dangerous dog (restricted breed), dangerous dog (declared) and commercial security dog. The following conditions apply to all three categories:

- Registrations for dangerous dogs will only be renewed annually under the Dog Act 1976 section 15.3A.
- Requirement for dog to wear a special identifying collar, be muzzled, on a lead and under the control of an adult capable of controlling the dog when in public (except when a commercial security dog is working).
- The dog must be confined in an enclosure that is constructed to prevent the dog from escaping, from being released or removed by another person without the owner's permission, and to prevent a child less than seven years old from entering or inserting part of their body. Warning signs must be displayed at every entrance.

Restricted Dog Breeds

Under the Dog Act 1976 the following dogs are classified as Restricted Dog Breeds:

- Pit Bull Terrier breeds or American Pitt Bull Terriers, Fila Brasileiro (Brazilian fighting dog), Japanese Tose, Dogo Argentina (Argentinian fighting dog) and Perro de presa Canario.
- All restricted breeds must be microchipped, sterilised and cannot be bought, sold or transferred except in the circumstances mentioned in subsection 33GC(4)(a) or (b) of the Dog Act 1976. Proof of sterilisation and microchipping is required with the Application for Certificate of Animal Registration.
