Date: 25 July 2018

Shire of Exmouth and The University of Western Australia reach agreement on Ningaloo Centre

Exmouth Shire Council and The University of Western Australia (UWA) have agreed to terms that terminate UWA's agreement to lease the research facilities at the Ningaloo Centre which provides fair and equitable compensation for the Shire of Exmouth.

The Shire of Exmouth and UWA worked co-operatively to finalise this matter in the best interests of all parties and are satisfied with the outcome.

The Shire is close to making a public announcement regarding the future of the marine research facilities at the Centre.
