

Request for Written Planning Advice

The advice provided through these services is intended to be initial advice on specific issues identified for discussion by the Applicant and any likely major issues relevant to a development proposal. This does not substitute the in-depth analysis typically associated with formal assessment of a development application and consideration of any public submissions. While the advice is given in good faith, it in no way binds a decision by the Shire.

These services are provided to Applicants for a fee. Information about current fees can be found on the Shire's website (www.exmouth.wa.gov.au).

The Shire endeavours to respond to requests for written planning advice within 20 working days.

Fee of $73 for providing written planning advice is to be paid upon submission of the form.
