SHIRE OF EXMOUTH'S COMMUNITY AND SPORTING VOLUNTEER AWARDS

The Shire of Exmouth values the ongoing work volunteers do and the positive impact that it has on the Exmouth community. Nominations open soon for the 2022 Community Volunteer and Sporting Awards. This event is held to recognise those in our community who go above and beyond in their voluntary roles and show good leadership and management in their volunteer organisations.

Nominations open on Friday 4 March 2022

Nominations close on Friday 15 April 2022

For more information see the Shire of Exmouth website www.exmouth.wa.gov.au

GASCOYNE RECREATION FORUM

The Department of Local Government, Sport and Cultural Industries (DLGSC) invites you to attend a professional development and networking opportunity to have your say on how outdoor recreation can look in WA. Outdoor recreation makes a huge contribution to the health and wellbeing of individuals and communities.

This forum aims to support the outdoor recreation sector and use this opportunity to better understand and maximise the benefits of outdoor recreation in the Gascoyne region.

Key note presenters from the DLGSC Recreation Team, Outdoors Great Southern, WestCycle, Parks and Leisure Australia WA and more.

This forum is suitable for local government employees, commercial operators and industry professionals, club and community groups and recreation enthusiasts.

AUSTRALIA DAY 2022 IN EXMOUTH

AUSTRALIA DAY AT THE POOL AND CITIZENSHIP CEREMONY

Australia Day celebrations this year were a very special day for two Exmouth residents with the holding of a citizenship ceremony.

Shire President Darlene Allston conducted the ceremony and welcomed Marcus Saxton and Monique Ginji as our newest Australian citizens.

More than 230 people enjoyed a morning at the pool, while Cr Jackie Brooks, Cr Anne McCarrol and CEO Ben Lewis manned the BBQ.

CLUB DEVELOPMENT

FREE WEBINAR TRAINING

The Shire of Exmouth has engaged a sports club development training company Sports Community to deliver an exceptional standard of training courses for club volunteers, parents, coaches and all personnel in order to make their role in grassroots sports easier on them.

Each webinar series is equally valuable to new and experienced volunteers and they have been designed with simply one goal in mind - to make it as easy as possible for the volunteer to successfully complete their role. Get step by step guidance and advice to feel well equipped and confident in your role at your club. Feel supported with any task at hand through the Sports Community's three part webinar series.

Run over a three week period and conducted after hours, the remote training sessions will provide you with the tools and resources to transform your life as a volunteer.

How to register

If you'd like to register to the sessions, simply use the code CLUBSUPPORT, making sure you nominate Shire of Exmouth as your sponsored club when checking out for FREE access to these sessions. <https://sportscommunity.com.au/weekly-webinar-training-courses/>
